

Description of Role

Editorial Research Associate

Applicants for the role of Editorial Research Associate must be prepared to take up either of the following roles, whichever is assigned to them after discussion:

- Writing at least 14 short journalistic articles (of 250-300 words) for the travel bulletin section, over a duration of 6 months. They will receive the byline for every article they publish in Coldnoon.
- Research work for preparing a list of possible subjects and topics for articles, in addition to writing at least 8 short journalistic articles (of 250-300 words) for the travel bulletin section, over a duration of 6 months. They will receive the byline for every article they publish in Coldnoon.

Advantages

Being part of a renowned creative/scholarly community and interaction with the Coldnoon editorial board.

A certificate of experience at the fulfilment of the tenure.

Preference given to the associate, later on, should they choose to submit their works to Coldnoon, after their tenure.

There is no monetary reward for this position.

The name of the associate shall appear on the Coldnoon editorial board, along with their other affiliations and details.